R6.36 - JOHN NEVILL RESEARCH SCHOLARSHIP

Recitals-

A. Walter John Clark of Sunbury Brigadier-General R.A.A. Retired trustee of the will of the late John Nevill has by deed dated the 10 January 1923 executed a declaration of trust in favour of the University of the fund described in the said deed and consisting of securities of the face value of £808 4s. 1d. and of all dividends and interest thereon for the purpose of founding and maintaining a scholarship and medal in the University for the encouragement of Veterinary Science.

B. At the request of the trustees of the fund the sum of $1,800 of Commonwealth Government Inscribed Stock now representing the fund was accepted by the Council subject to the trust expressed in the deed.

C. The sum of£808 4s. 1d. increased to $2,370 at 31 December 1994.

It is provided as follows

1. The sum of $2,370 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms the endowment of a Veterinary Research Scholarship called the "John Nevill Scholarship" (“the fund”) and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.

2. The scholarship consists of the net annual income of the fund. Provided that the John Nevill scholar may elect to receive part of the amount of his or her scholarship in the form of a gold medal embossed with the words "John Nevill Medal" and the date of the award together with the arms of the University of Melbourne.

3. The scholarship is awarded to enable a suitable candidate to carry out research work in Veterinary Science.

4. Candidates must hold a degree or licence in Veterinary Science in the University unless in special circumstances this requirement is waived by the Council.

5. The scholarship may be held in conjunction with a scholarship for Veterinary Research awarded from the veterinary research fund of the J. M. Higgins Research Foundation[1] and save as otherwise provided in this regulation must be awarded and held upon the conditions applicable to the scholarship awarded from the veterinary research fund from time to time.
