

PROPOSAL FOR NEW STUDENT AWARD

The John A. McKenzie/Selby Scientific Foundation Award

PROPOSING FACULTY/SCHOOL	Faculty of Science
TITLE OF THE OF AWARD	The John A. McKenzie/Selby Scientific Foundation Award
NATURE AND VALUE OF THE AWARD	The prize has an annual value of $1,000 and will be awarded on the basis of excellent academic achievement in an Undergraduate Degree Course in Science, to a student who is to pursue a Bachelor of Science (Degree with Honours) or equivalent, in the Department of Genetics
SPONSOR/DONOR	Selby Scientific Foundation
PERIOD FOR WHICH AWARD IS COMMITTED	Annual prize of $1,000 for an initial period of 5 years commencing in 2006.
ELIGIBILITY	Students who have completed the requirements of the BSc, BAsC or BBiomedSc at the University of Melbourne, and are pursuing a Bachelor of Science (Degree with Honours) or equivalent, in the Department of Genetics.
SELECTION CRITERIA	The award is made to the student with the highest Science Faculty Honours Score, who is enrolled in a Bachelor of Science (Degree with Honours) or equivalent, in the Department of Genetics
SPECIAL CONDITIONS	The award may be shared by up to 3 students, should it be impossible to distinguish between them on the basis of their academic record.
CONTACT PERSON	Mr Kevin Kirk Ext 47647