

STATUTE 2.5 – SENIOR EXECUTIVE STAFF

Certain offices reserved for appointment by Council

2.5.1 Council may by regulation reserve to itself the power to make appointments on behalf of the University to certain executive offices, with such duties and on such terms and conditions as it determines.

Power to obtain information

2.5.2 Without limiting any power that may be vested in any employee of the University under their contract of employment, an officer appointed by Council pursuant to a power reserved to Council by regulation:

- (a) may consult with any member of staff of the University;
- (b) may require any body of the University or any member of its staff to provide information which that officer considers to be relevant to the performance of their duties; and
- (c) has such other powers as are conferred upon them, or delegated by Council or by the vice-chancellor.

Deputies

- 2.5.3 (1) Council may nominate a deputy to any officer appointed by Council under section 2.5.1. The duties to be performed by any such nominated deputy must be determined by the relevant officer appointed under section 2.5.1.
- (2) If an officer appointed by Council under section 2.5.1 is absent or unable to perform the duties of that office, and no other person has been appointed to act in that office, a person nominated as deputy to that officer has the same powers and duties as that officer.
