

Korean

Korean is offered to Bachelor of Arts students at first year only in conjunction with Monash University.

Faculty of Arts requirements

Special enrolment arrangements apply: students must contact the Faculty of Arts Office for application forms and details.

For more information

Office for Complementary Languages
 School of Languages
 Fifth Floor, John Medley Building, East Tower
 The University of Melbourne
 Victoria 3010
 Tel: +613 8344 5518
 Fax: +613 8344 0194
 Web: <http://www.languages.unimelb.edu.au>

First-year subjects

109-121 Monash-Introduction to Korean 1

Note: Subject to sufficient enrolment and the availability of teaching staff classes will be taught at University of Melbourne's Parkville campus/Monash University's City Centre/ Monash University's Clayton campus.

Availability: 1st year

Credit points: 18.75

HECS-band: 1

Coordinator: Dr Younga Cho

Contact: A 3-hour lecture and a 2-hour on-line tutorial per week (Semester 1).

Description: This subject provides an introduction to the contemporary Korean language, with special emphasis on spoken language. Introduction to written Korean and the Korean alphabet will be delivered on-line. The subject focuses on the development of basic communicative competence in the Korean language. Topics include communicating in basic daily life situations, such as describing things, comparing, and requesting. Students will learn to read and comprehend contextually constrained simple texts and to write most sentences that they produce orally. In the computer lab class they will learn how to send email in Korean.

Assessment: A 2-hour exam, four 5-minute listening tests, a 10-minute oral test, three homework writing tasks and three web tasks.

Prescribed texts: Young-A Cho, In-Jung Cho & Douglas Ling, My Korean, Book 1. • Young-A Cho & In-Jung Cho, Korean through Active Listening, Book 1.

109-122 Monash-Introduction to Korean 2

Note: Subject to sufficient enrolment and the availability of teaching staff classes will be taught at University of Melbourne's Parkville campus/Monash University's City Centre/ Monash University's Clayton campus.

Availability: 1st year

Credit points: 18.75

HECS-band: 1

Coordinator: Dr Younga Cho

Prerequisites: 109-121 Monash-Introduction to Korean 1 (p.1).

Contact: A 3-hour lecture and a 2-hour on-line tutorial per week (Semester 2).

Description: This subject provides an introduction to the contemporary Korean language, with special emphasis on spoken language. Introduction to written Korean and the Korean alphabet will be delivered on-line. The subject is designed to continue on from 109-121 Monash-Introduction to Korean 1 (p.1). It aims to continue the development of basic communicative competence in the Korean language. Topics covered include communicating in basic daily life situations, such as describing things, comparing, and requesting. Students will learn to read and comprehend contextually constrained simple texts and to write most sentences that they produce orally. In the computer lab class they will learn how to send email in Korean.

Assessment: A 2-hour exam, four 5-minute listening tests, a 10-minute oral test, three homework writing tasks and three web tasks.

Prescribed texts: Young-A Cho, In-Jung Cho & Douglas Ling, My Korean, Book 1. • Young-A Cho & In-Jung Cho, Korean through Active Listening, Book 1.

