

Music History

The Faculty of Music offers a major and combined honours program in music history to Bachelor of Arts students.

Faculty of Arts requirements

Students undertaking the Bachelor of Arts are permitted to enrol in a range of subjects offered by other faculties, however students must complete a minimum of 50 points of first-year subjects and 100 points of second/third-year subjects in areas of study approved by the Faculty of Arts, see Arts-approved subject requirement (p.5) for more information.

BA combined course students are not permitted to enrol in these subjects for credit towards the arts component of the combined degree. Please consult a Faculty of Arts course adviser for more information.

Prerequisites

740-138 Discovering Music has no prerequisite and assumes no prior knowledge of music.

Arts students who have a background in music may wish to enrol in any of the four first-year music history subjects. To do so, students must undertake the Faculty of Music Musicianship Test to determine whether they have the musical aptitude to complete the subjects. This test will be held during Orientation, the week before the start of Semester 1, at the Faculty of Music. Students should register for the test with the Faculty of Music prior to Orientation.

The general prerequisite for second and third-year music history subjects is successful completion of two first-year music history subjects (25 points).

Requirements for a major

A major in music history usually consists of nine 12.5 point subjects totalling 112.5 points. It comprises:

- two first-year subjects in music history (25 points); and
- three second-year subjects in music history (37.5 points); and
- four third-year subjects in music history (50 points).

Students with no previous musical training commence study in the music history major by enrolling in 740-138 Discovering Music and 740-139 Discovering Music 2. Students who have some theory knowledge commence the major with 740-105 Music and Ideas and 740-149 Baroque and Classic Music.
