

R7.145 - THE SIR BERNARD HEINZE MEMORIAL AWARD

Recitals-

- A. An appeal was launched in 1985 by the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra Subscribers' Society in conjunction with the faculty of Music to endow an award to honour the contribution to music in Australia and overseas made by the late Sir Bernard Heinze, for thirty-one years the Ormond Professor of Music in the University.
- B. The donors intend that an award be made annually to a person who has made an outstanding contribution to music in Australia. The recipient of the award will receive a medallion and may also receive a monetary prize.
- C. The University received the sum of $36,000 from the appeal.
- D. The sum of $36,000 increased to $36,551 at 31 December 1994.

It is provided as follows-

- 1. The sum of $36,551 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms a fund called "The Sir Bernard Heinze Memorial Award" ("the fund") and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.
- 2. The award is to be made annually to a person who has made an outstanding contribution to music in Australia.
- 3. The recipient of the award receives a medallion and may also receive a monetary prize.
- 4. The net annual income of the fund is applied to the cost of the medallion and to other expenses reasonably associated with the making of the award, including expenses reasonably incurred in determining, in some years, that no award is to be made.
- 5. From the unexpended balance of the net annual income a prize may be determined by the Council from time to time on the recommendation of a committee known as the "Sir Bernard Heinze Memorial Committee" ("the committee") Award.
- 6. Each award is made by the Council on the recommendation of a committee known as "The Sir Bernard Heinze Memorial Award Committee" ("the committee") the membership of which is to be determined from time to time by the Council on the recommendation of the faculty of Music.
- 7. Where in any year no person is considered worthy of the award by the committee no award is to be made in that year and the balance of the income for that year must be added to the capital of the fund or, if the Council so directs, to the amount available for the making of the award in any subsequent year.

7. No person is to receive the award more than once.
8. The committee must in its absolute discretion determine which expenses referred to in section 4 are to be paid from the fund.
9. The Council may on the recommendation of the committee direct that the capital of the fund be resorted to for the purposes of this regulation.
