

UTR7.215 – THE PATRICIA LESLEY BROTHERTON BEQUEST

Recitals-

- A. Dr Patricia Lesley Brotherton of 134 Elgar Road, Box Hill South, Victoria, a lecturer in the Department of Psychology until her death as the result of a motor vehicle accident on 13 July 1979 bequeathed the sum of $20,000 to 'the Department of Psychology University of Melbourne to be used at the discretion of the professors of the Department for the work of the Psychology Department.'
- B. The University received the sum of $20,000 in satisfaction of the bequest.
- C. In 2001, on $100,000 of accumulated income being converted to capital, the fund had a total capital of $130,000.

It is provided as follows-

1. The sum of $130,000 capital and $10,179.79 in accumulations and additions to the sum forms a fund called the Patricia Lesley Brotherton Bequest ('the fund') and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.
2. The net annual income of the fund is expended by the Council on the recommendation of the head of the department of Psychology ('the department') for all or any of the following purposes-
  - (a) to provide special lectures ('The Brotherton Lectures') in the department given by persons from within Australia or overseas;
  - (b) to appoint from time to time from within Australia or overseas a fellow ('The Brotherton Fellow') to undertake in the department research relating to psychology; and
  - (c) for such other purposes concerning the work of the department as may be approved by the Council on the recommendation of the head of the department.
3. The Council may on the recommendation of the head of the department expend part of the capital for any or all of the purposes set out in section 2.

[Made 2/7/01; revoked as a Regulation and certified as a University trust record 26/5/10]