

UTR6.96 - MARY TAYLOR SCHOLARSHIPS

Recitals-

- A. Mary Taylor, late of Alexander Hotel, Spencer Street, Melbourne, who died on the 5 September 1952, bequeathed-

‘To the University of Melbourne the sum of one thousand pounds (£1,000) to be used both capital and income for the provision of scholarships in French Literature and Language such scholarships to be for such amounts and for such periods upon such terms and conditions in all respects as the Council of the University shall decide but before making any award the Council of the University shall take advice from the faculty of Arts in regard thereto.’

- B. The University received the sum of £1,001 13s. 4d. in satisfaction of the bequest.

It is provided as follows-

1. The capital sum, all income arising from the capital sum, and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms a fund called the ‘Mary Taylor Scholarships’ (‘fund’) and the fund must be paid into one or more investment common funds and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.
2. There are two scholarships awarded annually, each of the value of half the net annual income of the fund.
3. Each scholarship is called the ‘Mary Taylor Scholarship’.
4. The first scholarship is awarded to the student in the second year of the course for the degree of bachelor of Arts with the highest mark in a subject in the discipline of French language and literature studies, such subject to be determined from time to time by the head of the School of Languages and Linguistics.
5. The second scholarship is awarded to the student in the third year of the course for the degree of bachelor of Arts with the highest mark in a subject in the discipline of French language and literature studies, such subject to be determined from time to time by the head of the School of Languages and Linguistics.
6. As provided in section 43 of the Act, Council has delegated its power to make awards to the dean of the relevant faculty, in this case, the faculty of Arts (‘dean’), but this does not extend to Council’s powers and responsibilities as set out in section 1.
7. The dean is authorised to award each scholarship on behalf of the University.
