UTR 6.26 – THE JAMES CUMING PRIZE

Background

A. James Cuming of Melbourne presented to the University the sum of £1,000 for the purpose of founding a prize in Agricultural Chemistry.

It is provided as follows-

1. The sum of £1,000 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms a fund called the ‘James Cuming Prize’ (‘fund’) and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until Council directs otherwise.

2. The prize is to be awarded annually to the student with the top mark in a subject relating to the study of agricultural chemistry, such subject to be determined from time to time by the Dean of the Faculty of Veterinary and Agricultural Sciences (‘Dean’).

3. The value of the prize is the net annual income of the fund.

4. Each prize is to be called ‘The James Cuming Prize’.

5. Council hereby authorises the Dean to award the prize on behalf of the University.
