PUBLIC LECTURE
by Professor Gerard Vaughan AM and Mr Ray Tonkin

The Urban Development of Melbourne: Have We Got It Right? Where To Now?

In this public ‘conversation’ which is the first of a trio to be held at Newman College over the next few months on the history and the future of the city of Melbourne Professor Gerard Vaughan, former Director of the National Gallery of Victoria, and currently a member of the Australian Institute of Art History, The University of Melbourne, discusses with Ray Tonkin, former executive director of Heritage Victoria, the prospects and problems that confront us.

Wednesday 9 April 2014, 5–6pm

Venue
The Oratory, Newman College, University of Melbourne
887 Swanston Street, Parkville

Bookings
Online http://www.trybooking.com/76158
Email outreach@snac.unimelb.edu.au
Telephone 9342 1614