

UTR7.83 - THE SYDNEY RUBBO MEMORIAL TRUST

Recitals-

- A. $10,820 was subscribed and presented to the University.
- B. The subscribers wished to record their appreciation of the life and work of the late Sydney Dattilo Rubbo, a distinguished Microbiologist of the University.
- C. The University received the sum on trust to finance visits to Australia from time to time by distinguished microbiologists to deliver the Sydney Rubbo Memorial Oration and other lectures throughout Australia.
- D. The University received $10,820 at the time of the donation, which sum increased to $21,067 at 31 December 1994.

It is provided as follows-

- 1. The sum of $21,067 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms the endowment of a fund called the "Sydney Rubbo Memorial Trust Fund" ("the fund") and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.
- 2. The net income of the fund is used to provide for the delivery of lectures in Microbiology and the costs of and incidental to visits by the lecturer to the University and to other universities and institutions in Australia.
- 3. The fund is administered by the Council on the recommendation of a committee appointed by it from time to time.
- 4. The University may request the Australian Society for Microbiology or other appropriate body or person to undertake the arrangements for the visit of the lecturer in which event the net income of the fund or part thereof may be used to reimburse such body or person in respect of the costs of and incidental to the lecture and visit.
