

UTR7.162 - SCHOOL OF EARLY CHILDHOOD STUDIES FUND

Recitals-

- A. As a consequence of the amalgamation of the University with the Melbourne College of Advanced Education on 1 January 1989, the Institute of Early Childhood Studies Trust has been wound up.
- B. Cash and investments to the value of $251,865 have been transferred to the University. As at 8 June 2001 the capital of the fund was $248,716.00.
- C. The University has determined that the cash and investments are to endow a fund to be called the School of Early Childhood Studies Fund, the School of Early Childhood Studies being one of the six departments of the newly created Institute of Education.
- D. In 1998 the School of Early Childhood Studies amalgamated with the Department of Learning Assessment and Special Education to form the Department of Learning and Educational Development.
- E. From 1 January 1995 the Institute of Education became the faculty of Education.
- F. On 1 January 2008 the faculty of Education became Melbourne Graduate School of Education ('MGSE'). MGSE is a single-department graduate school and faculty and there is no longer a Department of Learning and Educational Development.

It is provided as follows-

- 1. The cash and investments totalling $251,865 and any accumulations and additions to them form a fund called the 'School of Early Childhood Studies Fund' ('the fund') and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.
- 2. The net annual income of the fund is applied by Council to the advancement and encouragement of teaching and research in early childhood studies in Melbourne Graduate School of Education ('MGSE') on the recommendation of the dean of MGSE who before making any such recommendation must consult the professor of Early Childhood Education Care provided that if the office is vacant at the relevant time, no consultation is necessary.
- 3. The Council may on the recommendation of the dean direct that the capital of the fund be resorted to for the purposes set out in section 2.
