UTR6.132 - THE JESSIE WEBB SCHOLARSHIP

Recitals-

A. The late Jessie Stobo Watson Webb, formerly of South Yarra, senior lecturer in the school of History, left her residuary estate to the University to form a fund to enable the University ‘to send at least every five years a student to spend a season in Greece under the direction of the British School of Archaeology at Athens or any other similar school’.

B. A Judge of the Supreme Court of Victoria on 22 March, 1965, made an Order relating to the terms of the will.

C. The University received the sum of £7,128 in satisfaction of the bequest, which sum increased to $60,906 at 31 December 1994.

D. On 24 March 2003 the Supreme Court of Victoria made a further Order concerning the terms of the scholarships enabling the University to award the scholarships to a student enrolled in a postgraduate course undertaking research in Ancient History or Classical Studies.

E. At 31 December 2002 the capital was $175,617.38 and the cash balance was $38,513.62.

It is provided as follows-

1. The sum $175,617.38 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms a fund called ‘The Jessie Webb Scholarship’ (‘the fund’) and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.

2. The value of the scholarship is that determined from time to time by the Council but must not in any case exceed the income of the fund accrued since the date of the immediately preceding award.

3. The scholarship is open to students enrolled in a postgraduate course undertaking research in Ancient History or Classical Studies.

4. The scholarship is awarded by the Council on the recommendation of a committee comprising the dean of the faculty of Arts (‘the faculty’), the professor of Classical Studies, and a professor of History appointed by the faculty:

   Provided that if the dean of the faculty is either the professor of Classical Studies or a professor of History, then the third member of the committee must be appointed by the faculty from among the other professors in the faculty.

5. The scholar is required as a condition of the award to spend a season in Greece under the direction of the British School of Archaeology at Athens or any other similar school.
