Recitals-

A. C.W.N. Sexton, formerly Associate Professor of Civil Engineering in the University of Melbourne and for 36 years a member of the staff of the University, donated to the University the sum of £1,000 together with a further sum of £500 for the establishment of a fund to provide a scholarship or scholarships in the department of Civil Engineering (now, part of the department of Infrastructure Engineering) for the assistance of African or Asian students from British Commonwealth countries.

B. The donor directed that the sum be invested in securities authorised by the laws of the Commonwealth of Australia or any of its States or Territories for the investment of trust funds or in debentures of or preference or ordinary shares or stock units in any company or in any other investment as the Council from time to time thinks fit.

It is provided as follows-

1. The sum of £1,500 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms a fund called the ‘C.W.N. Sexton Scholarship for African or Asian Students from British Commonwealth Countries’ ('the fund') and the fund must be invested in such abovementioned investments as Council from time to time directs.

2. (a) The scholarship is to be awarded by the dean of Melbourne School of Engineering ('the dean').
   (b) Selection must be made primarily on the basis of a candidate's need for financial assistance.
   (c) The dean, may-
      (i) award more than one scholarship in any year, or
      (ii) award the scholarship annually, biennially, or at such other time as it determines to be appropriate.

3. The scholarship is open only to such persons who in the opinion of the dean are African or Asian students of countries within the British Commonwealth who-
   (i) have completed the first two years of a Civil Engineering course at the University or, in the opinion of the dean, have reached an equivalent standard; and
   (ii) in the opinion of the dean, possess academic ability sufficient to enable them to complete within a reasonable time the course or work being undertaken or that which it is proposed to commence.

4. The scholarship is awarded to assist a candidate to pursue in the department of Infrastructure Engineering either-
   (i) an undergraduate course; or
   (ii) post-graduate work, preferably for a higher degree.

5. The tenure of the scholarship is one year or for such further period as is determined by the dean.
6. The scholarship may be awarded to a candidate notwithstanding that he or she has previously competed for, or has previously been awarded, that scholarship.

7. The value of the scholarship is determined from time to time by the dean.

8. As provided in section 43 of the Act, Council has delegated its power to make awards to the dean of the relevant faculty, in this case Melbourne School of Engineering.

9. The dean is authorised to award this scholarship on behalf of the University.
