UTR6.227 – THE T.W. HEALY AWARD

Recitals–

A. In 2002 the School of Chemistry established the T.W. Healy Award to commemorate the distinguished career of Professor Emeritus T.W. Healy.

B. Professor Emeritus Healy, BSc MSc PhD DSc(Hon) FAA FTSE FRACI was co-founder in 1967 of the Australian Colloid and Surface Chemistry Student Conferences, dean of the faculty of Science from 1985 to 1990, president of the Board in 1998 and 1999 and professor of Physical Chemistry until his retirement in 1998.

C. The fund amounted to $48,000 comprising the residue of the T.W. Healy Symposium on Colloid and Surface Chemistry held in November 1998 and contributions by friends and colleagues of Professor Emeritus Healy.

It is provided as follows –

1. The sum of $48,000 and any accumulations and additions to the sum is to form a fund called 'The T.W. Healy Award Fund' ('the fund') which must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until Council directs otherwise.

2. The award is to be made to a student enrolled in the course for a postgraduate degree by research in chemistry provided that preference will be given to students enrolled for the degree of doctor of Philosophy pursuing research in the field of colloid and surface chemistry.

3. The award is to enable the recipient to attend a conference either in Australia or overseas at which the student will present the results of his or her research.

4. The award is to be made annually by Council on the recommendation of the dean of the faculty of Science in consultation with the head of the school of Chemistry.

5. The value of the award is to be determined by Council on the recommendation of the dean.

6. If in any year there is sufficient income, Council on the recommendation of the dean, may make a second award or add the surplus income to capital.

7. If at any time and for whatever reason, Council on the recommendation of the dean, believes that it has become impractical or impossible to carry out the purpose stated above, then Council may apply the income of the fund, and where necessary, the capital for such other purposes as are, in its opinion, most closely in accordance with the purpose of the fund.
