

UTR7.27 - WILLIAM SUTHERLAND ANTHROPOLOGICAL FUND

Recitals-

- A. In 1911 Dr. James William (afterwards Sir James) Barrett, M.D., M.S., F.R.C.S., Eng., donated £500 to the University "as a nucleus of endowment of a chair or department of Anthropology in connection with the Anatomical school of the University".
- B. The donor expressed a wish that the name of William Sutherland, M.A., physicist and mathematician, be associated with the endowment.
- C. The sum of £500 increased to $7,426 at 31 December 1994.

It is provided as follows-

1. The sum of $7,426 and any accumulations and additions to the sum forms the endowment of a fund called the "William Sutherland Anthropological Fund" ("the fund") and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.
2. The income of the fund is applied to the maintenance of a chair or department of Anthropology in the University:

Provided that until the establishment of such a chair or department the income is devoted to the purposes of teaching or research in Anthropology in the University.
