

UTR7.49 - THE THEODORE FINK EDUCATION ENDOWMENT

Recitals-

- A. In 1956 Mrs Hilda Elliott of Toorak, Victoria and Mr H. Roland Fink of South Yarra, Victoria gave the sum of £1,000 and £500 respectively to endow "The Theodore Fink Education Endowment" as a memorial to their father, Theodore Fink (1855-1942), Chairman of the Royal Commission on Technical Education in Victoria between 1899-1901 and also of the Royal Commission on the University of Melbourne between 1902-4.
- B. Between 1962 and 1986, the University received further donations and a bequest from Mrs Elliott amounting to $27,200, and in 1982, a donation of $1,200 from Mrs Louise de Bretteville who was also a daughter of Theodore Fink.

It is provided as follows-

1. The original sum of £1,500 and the subsequent accumulations and additions thereto is to form the endowment of a fund called "The Theodore Fink Education Endowment" ("fund") and the fund must be paid into one or more common investment funds and remain there until Council directs otherwise.
2. The income of the fund is to be used to assist in defraying the travelling and other expenses involved in assembling an annual seminar to be held in Melbourne and to be concerned with the historical or comparative study of Australian education or both for the purpose of advancing education in Australia.
3. Invitations to persons to attend a seminar with the assistance of the fund are to be made on behalf of the University by the dean of Melbourne Graduate School of Education ("dean").
4. Each seminar is to be called the "The Theodore Fink Memorial Seminar in Australian Education".
5. Income of the fund remaining unexpended and the income in any year in which the dean decides that it is impracticable to convene a seminar may be used to assist the publication of any study of Australian education which is historical or comparative or both, and in default of any such decision by the dean, must be added to the fund.
