

Min Shiuang (Michelle) Lee

Melbourne, Australia | +61-435-287-284 | m30134@hotmail.com

Education

University of Melbourne Doctoral Program in Decision, Risk and Financial Sciences Jul 20 – Current Research interests: Behavioural Finance, Consumer Finance, Decision-making, and Computational Complexity
Supervised by Carsten Murawski

University of Melbourne Bachelor of Commerce (Honours in Finance) Feb 15 – Dec 18
Honours Thesis: The Impact of Security Design on Information Aggregation: An Experimental Study (2018), supervised by the Brain, Mind & Markets Lab.
- Top Achiever for the Honours Finance Research Essay

Waseda University Semester Exchange (Tokyo, Japan) Sep 16 – Feb 17
JASSO scholarship recipient (Japanese Government sponsorship)

Work Experience

Tutor University of Melbourne Mar 19 – Current
- Tutored subjects from the Finance department, including FNCE10002 Principles of Finance, FNCE20003 Introductory Personal Finance, and FNCE30012 Foundations of FinTech
- Developed teaching plans and created quality contents for students to engage in tutorials
- Explained finance theories and delivered step-by-step guide to tutorial questions

Research Analyst Brain, Mind and Markets Lab Feb 20 – Jul 20
- Collaborated with ASIC to conduct a literature review in financial decision-making, market efficiency and computational complexity
- Using Python to manipulate and analyse experimental data

Research Analyst Acorn Capital Limited Feb 19 – Aug 19
- Analysed and identified market factors that impact the Emerging Markets in Australia, including liquidity, market sentiment, momentum and size factors
- Performed quantitative research on 20 years of pricing data in the Emerging Markets using Python and SQL
- Helped develop a risk management framework that uses the market factors as signals to identify risky conditions in the market
- Examined the effectiveness of different risk management strategies to reduce risk exposures of portfolios

Volunteer Experience

Peer Health Advocate The University of Melbourne Health Promotion Program Feb 22 – Current
- Promoted different aspects of health on campus, including physical, mental and sexual health
- Undertook Mental Health First Aid Training for tertiary students

Student Ambassador Melbourne Business School Ambassador Program Feb 21 – Nov 21
- Facilitated events and led activities organised by the Melbourne Business School
- Supported new graduate students in adjusting to the online learning environment during the pandemic

Local Host Melbourne University Student Exchange Society Buddy Program Mar 17 – Nov 17
- Provided support and guidance for exchange students from around the world during their time in Melbourne
- Organised activities and events for exchange students over the year

Skills

Python: Intermediate

Matlab: Basic

Rstudio: Intermediate

LaTeX: Intermediate

SQL: Intermediate