Recitals –

- A. Ernest Edward Truby Williams, late of Melbourne, who died on 15 August 1941 made two bequests to the University, the first for the "benefit of such University generally" and the second "as an endowment for the University Conservatorium of Music".
- B. The first bequest has been applied to the endowment of the Truby Williams Chair of Economics.
- C. The sum of £10,147 7s. 2d. was received in satisfaction of the second bequest.
- D. From April 2009, the Faculty of the Victorian College of the Arts and the Faculty of Music (which had previously been known as The University Conservatorium of Music until 1926) were amalgamated. From 1 January 2019, the Faculty is now known as the Faculty of Fine Arts and Music ('Faculty'). Separate schools have been established within the Faculty for each discipline offered by the Faculty, one being the School of Music.
- E. The School of Music within the Faculty offers the higher education award courses and degrees previously offered by the former Faculty of Music within its School of Music and by the Faculty of the Victorian College of the Arts (as then known) within its discipline of Music.

It is provided as follows –

1. The sum of £10,147 7s. 2d. and any accumulations or additions to the sum forms a fund known as the 'Truby Williams Conservatorium Endowment Fund' ('Fund') and the Fund is to be paid into an investment pool and must remain there until Council directs otherwise.
2. The Fean of the Faculty of Fine Arts and Music ('Faculty') on the recommendation of the head of the School of Music is authorised to apply the income of the fund on behalf of the University to the purposes of the School of Music in such a manner as the Dean of the Faculty on the recommendation of the head of the School of Music may from time to time decide.
