Recital-

- A. Former Judges of the Accident Compensation Tribunal in the State of Victoria, Ross Betts, John Bowman, Lyn Boyes, John Bingeman, Michael Arnold, Michael Croyle, Michael Gorton, Peter Hardham and Paul Mulvany, have donated $50,550.00 to the University 'on trust to fund a series of lectures to be given by people of international repute on issues relating to the rule of law in Australia and internationally. The issues to be dealt with in this series of lectures should include those relating to judicial independence.'
- B. The donors did not require that the capital be preserved, stating that it was 'preferable to use it over the following few years spanning the centenary of federation when constitutional issues are likely to receive great public attention.'

It is provided as follows-

- 1. The sum of $50,550.00 and any accumulations or additions to the sum forms a fund called the 'Seabrook Chambers Lectureship' ('the fund') and the fund must be paid into an investment pool and remain there until the Council directs otherwise.
- 2. The net annual income of the fund is to be applied by the Council on the recommendation of the dean of the faculty of Law ('the dean') to a series of lectures to be given by people of international repute on issues relating to the rule of law in Australia and internationally. The issues to be dealt with in this series of lectures should include those relating to judicial independence.
- 3. The Council on the recommendation of the dean may direct that the whole of the capital of the fund or any part thereof be resorted to for the purpose stated in section 2.
