

UTR7.233 – THE WILLIAM GAMBLE VISITING FELLOWSHIP FUND

Background

- A. Mr Lindsay Gamble ('the donor') of 97 High Street, Berwick in the State of Victoria, in 1993 donated to the Victorian College of Agriculture and Horticulture ('the VCAH') the sum of $20,000 and a further sum of $10,000 in 1994 to establish a fellowship at Dookie College in memory of his father, William Gamble, who from 1916 to 1921 was principal of Dookie College.
- B. It was the donor's wish that the income of the fund be applied to providing an overseas visiting fellow at Dookie College.
- C. In 1993 the sum of $10,000 was contributed by Mr Bob Luff, Director of the VCAH.
- D. In 1994 the VCAH Foundation held an appeal to augment the fund. The sum raised is unknown.
- E. In 1997 Dookie College, part of the Victorian College of Agriculture and Horticulture ('the VCAH') became part of the Institute of Land and Food Resources in the University. The Institute of Land and Food Resources is now the faculty of Land and Food Resources.
- F. In 1997 the trust was transferred to the University when it amalgamated with the VCAH.
- G. At 31 December 2004 the capital of the fund was $70,571.96 and the accumulated income was $30,030.63.

It is provided as follows –
