

UTR7.79 - MAURICE DAVID GOLDMAN PUBLICATION FUND

Recitals-

- A. Maurice David Goldman, the foundation professor of Semitic Studies in the University, who died on 14 September 1957 bequeathed to the University his residuary estate and further directed that-

‘It is my wish that moneys received by the said University of Melbourne pursuant to this my Will shall be applied to the advancement of the Department of Semitic Studies. This however shall be entirely at the discretion of the University Authorities.’

- B. The University received $12,357 (‘capital sum’) in satisfaction of the bequest.

It is provided as follows-

1. The capital sum and any accumulations and additions to the capital sum form a fund to be called the ‘Maurice David Goldman Publication Fund’ (‘fund’), and the fund must be paid into one or more investment common funds and remain there until Council directs otherwise.
2. Grants from the fund are made by the dean of the faculty of Arts (‘dean’) on the recommendation of the head of the academic unit responsible for the discipline of History (‘head’).
3. The net annual income of the fund is available-
 - (a) to assist in whole or in part the expenses of publication of-
 - (i) any journal published by or on behalf of that academic unit,
 - (ii) any work which in the opinion of the head-
 - (A) has substantially emanated from the University;
 - (B) is of high merit;
 - (C) is to be published in an appropriate form; and
 - (b) for other teaching or research purposes of that academic unit.
4. The dean may require any assistance received from the fund to be acknowledged in any publication which was made with such assistance.
5. Any unspent income of the fund in any year may be added to the capital of the fund or accumulated as income for expenditure in a subsequent year.
6. Council may at any time direct that the whole of the capital of the fund or any part thereof be resorted to for the purpose or purposes stated above.
