Information on the Financial Econometrics Pre-Conference for Young Scholars

Due to the continued success of the pre-conference, we are once again accepting submissions for 2020. Everybody planning to attend the Annual SoFiE conference is invited to register and attend this Pre-Conference to help raise the quality and recognition of the young scholars in our organization!

The pre-conference provides students, postdocs, and untenured professors (with up to three years in a tenure-track job) the opportunity to present their work prior to the regular conference. Joint work with senior co-authors is eligible for the pre-conference as long as the presenting co-author is eligible.

Papers eligible for the pre-conference are treated exactly as other submissions for the SoFiE conference. However, if they do not make the program, they are automatically considered for the pre-conference. Finally, it is also possible to submit a paper for consideration for the pre-conference only, as long as this is indicated at the time of submission.

The pre-conference will last one full day and will feature only young scholars, apart from the invited address by Rossen Valkanov from the University of California San Diego. We are planning to have a seasoned scholar discuss each paper in order to enhance information exchange and constructive feedback.

“Best Paper Award” for Pre-Conference

This year, SoFiE will be offering an award for Best Paper among the Pre-Conference papers. The winner will receive $500. Eligible papers will be evaluated by a panel of judges based upon criteria such as quality of research, presentation and exchanges with discussants and the audience during the Pre-Conference.

Information on the submission procedure
